Hello (Future Investor's Name), I am with an Investment Club. Instead of using our money, we are using the banks money to invest. The Investment Club has helped (or "is helping") me build my credit and I just received over $20,000 in funding. (If you have not received your funding, use your members' stories- Ex: Many members have received over $20k and I will be getting funded soon!) Because we're investing in Bitcoin, I took $5,000 and started trading with a Robot that is averaging me 5% Plus Monthly in my Wallet. We have had months where it has been as high as 13%. Last week it gave me a return on investment of $____. My present Wallet balance is $____. What are your thoughts? Let me send you an information link.
